Message from the Sovereign Grand Inspector General
in Colorado and President of the Scottish Rite Foundation of Colorado

The Honorable
Stephen M. Munsinger, 33<sup>o</sup>

I am pleased to present the 2015 State of the Foundation Report for the Scottish Rite Foundation of Colorado – commonly referred to as Colorado RiteCare. This report summarizes our work with childhood language disorders giving special focus on the performance of our nine speech-language partners in Colorado. The Foundation’s work is an important way in which Masons help the community through the Masonic teaching of charity.

At the end of 2015 our net assets totaled $23 million. During the year we distributed $832 thousand in grants to our RiteCare partners – monies which helped make it possible for children to receive speech-language care – and in graduate student scholarships

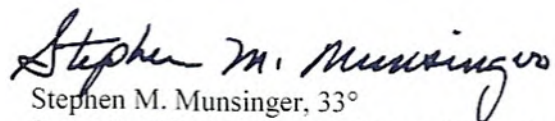

Four significant items regarding our work in 2015 are worthy of special mention.

- ✓ Colorado RiteCare enabled 949 children to receive speech-language services in 20 communities.
- ✓ Colorado RiteCare awarded $30,000 in scholarships – six $5,000 scholarships for graduate work in speech-language pathology.
- ✓ Colorado RiteCare began a partnership with Gunnison Valley Hospital located in Gunnison, Colorado.

This report provides information about this remarkable program of service to Colorado families. As you review these pages please keep in mind that about 10 percent of all children are at-risk for some type of speech-language disorder. Whether it be delayed speech development, autism, dyslexia, or many of the other speech-language disorders, Colorado RiteCare remains faithful to its mission and vision of striving to provide every child in Colorado with speech-language disorders the opportunity to receive treatment and care.

On behalf of our Trustees, we are honored to be committed to this work and to be associated with our outstanding partners who deliver the speech-language services. We all thank our many supporters and friends for helping make this work possible – now and in the future.

Sincerely,

Stephen M. Munsinger, 33<sup>o</sup>
Sovereign Grand Inspector General in Colorado

2015 State of the Foundation Report

Introduction

The Scottish Rite Foundation of Colorado (Foundation) was established in 1953 by Scottish Rite Masons in Denver, Colorado as a not-for-profit corporation. The Foundation is approved by the Internal Revenue Service as an IRS Code Section 501(c)(3) public charity. The IRS approval letter, issued in 1954, was reissued in August 2006 by request of the Foundation.

The Foundation was established to provide financial assistance to help families of children with language disorders receive clinical therapy treatment. This is now known nationally and in Colorado as the RiteCare Childhood Language Program. The Colorado RiteCare Program is the first program of its kind in the United States. Since 1953, all states in the Southern Jurisdiction of the Scottish Rite – to which Colorado belongs and which includes 35 states and the District of Columbia – have each organized a RiteCare Childhood Language Program. The Scottish Rite Foundation of Colorado is also a leader in the field by being one of the first organizations in the United States to promote speech and language therapy for preschool-age children.

The Foundation employs no professional caregivers and has no clinical infrastructure. All therapy and related services are provided by professionally qualified and certified speech-language pathologists and learning specialists. The Foundation provides grants to non-profit partner organizations for defraying the cost that would otherwise be charged to families. The partners are community-based organizations most of which are not-for-profit hospitals.

Founding Father
William G. Schweigert, 33<sup>o</sup>

Financial assistance applications are made directly to the partner clinic by the applying family and are jointly reviewed by the clinic director and a Foundation committee appointed specifically for this purpose by the President of the Foundation's Board of Trustees. The Foundation's appraisal philosophy affirms the importance of family participation by financially contributing to the care of their child, even though the family's contribution may be minimal. The level of the Foundation's financial assistance is based on a graduated scale related to family income and need. In addition, the assistance is provided after all other sources of financial support are exhausted.

The Foundation's operational characteristics include:

1. Comprehensive speech-language therapy services
2. Community-based partners
3. Statewide coverage
4. Professionally certified speech pathologists employed by partnering organizations
5. Focus on preschool-age children
6. Professionally managed RiteCare clinics, centers, and Foundation operations
7. Overhead cost efficiency

Speech therapy and related services are delivered by certified speech-language pathologists, learning specialists, and related professionals. Certification requires a graduate college degree in the specialty field. More than 200 speech pathologists, audiologists, and learning specialists are employed by the Foundation's partners in Colorado. Each partnering organization has established credentialing requirements for its professional staff of caregivers.

Service is typically provided to children with disabilities – without regard to race, color, religion, gender, or national origin. Disabilities may include language delay, hearing loss, cleft lip and palate, autism spectrum disorder, Down syndrome, brain injury, dyslexia, voice disorders, fluency dysfunction and other disorders of speech and language development.

Scottish Rite Foundation of Colorado Governance and Management

The Foundation is governed by a seven-member Board of Trustees which establishes policy and overall guidance for Foundation operations. The Board receives no compensation for time spent and services provided. At December 31, 2015, the Board consisted of the following individuals.

- Stephen M. Munsinger, President (Denver)
- John W. Groves, Vice President (Grand Junction)
- Lee E. Schlessman, Treasurer (Denver)
- Gerald A. Ford (Arvada)
- Richard G. Frohlick (Denver)
- Thomas R. Magnuson (Greeley)
- Karl J. Hinkle (Colorado Springs)

The day-to-day operations of the Foundation are the responsibility of the Executive Secretary, Vernon B. Ingraham (Denver).

The Foundation's flagship partner is Children's Hospital Colorado (Children's Colorado). Since 1953 grants to Children's Colorado totaled $26 million (72 percent of all grants awarded by the Foundation totaling $36 million). Deborah Hayes, Ph.D., chairs the Department of Audiology, Speech Pathology, and Learning Services at Children's Colorado. Since 1983 she has occupied this position and, as such, serves as an ex officio member of the Foundation's Board of Trustees.

In 2003 the Foundation completed a $2 million fundraising campaign to establish the Kelley Family/Schlessman Family Scottish Rite Masons Chair in Childhood Language Disorders at Children’s Hospital Colorado. Dr. Hayes occupies this distinguished chair and as such has responsibility for coordinating all Foundation-supported RiteCare operations in Colorado.

RiteCare Child
CHC Therapy Care Center,
Pueblo

In addition, the Board has two standing committees to provide support for Foundation operations. These are the Finance Committee and the Long Range Planning Committee. The Finance Committee, comprised of three Trustees and one ex officio member (Executive Secretary), meets quarterly with the Foundation’s investment portfolio managers. The Long Range Planning Committee, consisting of three Trustees and two adhoc members (Dr. Hayes and the Executive Secretary), meets at least annually to review and recommend strategic planning initiatives for the Board of Trustees’ consideration.

In 2015 the Foundation’s three-year average administrative overhead rate was 6 percent, representing 6 cents spent for each revenue dollar received. Such a low overhead rate reflects well on the Board of Trustees and Executive Secretary in their management of the Foundation.

Scottish Rite Foundation of Colorado Mission

The mission of the Scottish Rite Foundation of Colorado, as officially endorsed by the Board of Trustees, is “to enhance the quality of life for Colorado’s children and their families by supporting high quality, collaborative programs for the prevention and treatment of childhood language disorders.” The Foundation accomplishes this by:

1. Providing sustaining support to children, families, and communities for the prevention and treatment of childhood language disorders.
2. Helping partner-programs provide speech, language, and learning therapy for children; parent education; and family and community language enrichment programs.
3. Supporting student and professional education and training.

Scottish Rite Foundation of Colorado Vision

The vision of the Scottish Rite Foundation of Colorado, as officially endorsed by the Board of Trustees, is “to ensure that all Colorado children with language disorders have the opportunity to receive treatment and care.”

The 2015 clinical therapy programs were offered at partnership locations in 15 communities: Aurora, Boulder, Broomfield, Colorado Springs, Delta, Fort Collins, Grand Junction, Greeley, Gunnison, Littleton, Loveland, Montrose, Parker, Pueblo, and Ridgway.

The 2015 early (preschool-age) language development programs were offered at partnership locations totaling five communities: Cortez, Dolores, Dove Creek, Grand Junction, and Mancos.

Highlights of the Year 2015

The year 2015 was another successful year for the Scottish Rite Foundation of Colorado and its RiteCare Childhood Language Program. See Exhibit F for a summary of partner annual report highlights. Foundation highlights for the year include:

1. Providing services to 949 children with financial support from the Scottish Rite Foundation of Colorado including speech therapy and/or related services for 553 children and early language and literacy services (Treasure Chest Program) for 396 children.
2. Awarding six scholarships of $5,000 each to second-year speech-pathology graduate students at the University of Colorado - Boulder and the University of Northern Colorado. Scholarships are awarded in the name of Dwight A. Hamilton, former Sovereign Grand Inspector General in Colorado and former President of the Foundation (1994-2005)
3. Conducting outreach programs in partnership with the following RiteCare clinics: Children’s Hospital Colorado in Aurora (with satellite clinic locations in Broomfield, Colorado Springs, Littleton, Parker, and Pueblo), Children’s Speech and Reading Center in Fort Collins (with a satellite location in Loveland), St. Mary’s Life Center in Grand Junction, UNC in Greeley, and CU in Boulder. This university outreach included on-campus presentations and discussions with speech-language pathology graduate students. In addition, presentations were made to Scottish Rite reunion classes in Denver, Colorado Springs, and Grand Junction.
4. Conducting the Promise to Care Fundraising Campaign generating to date $1.2 million in donations and pledges for certain speech therapy and related services. These services include telepractice, camp programs, treasure chest programs, and graduate scholarships.

Children Served

Since the Foundation’s beginning in 1953, 18,930 children have been served through its RiteCare partners. For the 12 months ended December 31, 2015, the Foundation served 949 children in Colorado. See Exhibit D for more details.

Colorado Springs and South/Southeast Colorado	50	1,464
Total Children Served	949	18,930

The RiteCare program directors evaluate children’s progress throughout Colorado by means of the Child Development Inventory. Based on an inventory of progress of 1,435 RiteCare children since the evaluation’s inception in 2005, the most robust developmental gains are noted in the area of social-communicative behaviors. See Exhibit E for details.

Grants and Scholarships Funded by Colorado RiteCare

In 2015 program support funded by the Foundation totaled $802,250 (excludes graduate scholarships) representing 3.5 percent of net assets as of December 31, 2015 (see Exhibit B).

Through our investment in their future, many children with speech and language disabilities received help.

Also, in 2015 the average annual cost-per-child for the Treasure Chest programs was $266 ($105,520/396 children), enabling many families to receive learning materials and guidance in how to use them in working with their children.

Note a: The Scottish Rite Foundation of Colorado requires its annual financial statements to be audited by an independent certified public accountant. An annual IRS form 990 is also prepared. The auditing firm in 2015 was Marrs, Sevier & Company, LLC. The auditors expressed a clean opinion on the 2015 financial statements in their letter to the Board of Trustees dated September 14, 2016. The auditors' report including the audited financial statements and the IRS form 990 are permanently on file in the Foundation office. These documents are available for public review upon request.

Note b: The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the Foundation and its wholly owned subsidiary RiteCare LLC, a sole member limited liability company, which holds the Foundation's land held for investment. All transactions and balances between the entities have been eliminated in consolidation. During 2012 the final steps were completed in receiving a parcel of land bequeathed to the Foundation. The land, consisting of 1,569 acres of dry agricultural land located in Cheyenne County, Colorado, is subject to a life estate lease which will remain in effect until the death of the current tenant.

Comparison of Recent Three-Year Financial Trends

In 2015 the Scottish Rite Foundation of Colorado incurred a net loss of revenues due to unrealized losses on investments totaling $1.9 million. Consequently, an overhead rate for the year is not calculated. If there had been no such unrealized loss with everything else being equal, the overhead rate would have been 7.2%. The administrative overhead rate based on total revenues for the three-year period 2013-2015 was 6.0%. If there had been no unrealized losses on investments in 2015 with everything else being equal, the overhead rate would have been 4.1%

Outcomes Evaluation of Children's Developmental Progress during Therapy

The outcomes evaluation was implemented statewide in 2005 to measure the effectiveness of therapy. The evaluation is based on the Child Development Inventory which is a parent rating of the child's development in social communication skills, receptive language, expressive language and other domains. As of December 31, 2015, the inventory database includes more than 1,400 children.

Measures include comparing children's developmental age in each domain with their chronological age. If the child's developmental age is equivalent to his/her chronological age, the developmental quotient is 100. Typically developing children have developmental quotients in all domains ranging from 85 to 115.

On the average, children enrolled in the Foundation's clinical program show developmental delay, most pronounced in the language domains of expressive language, language comprehension, and social skills. The most robust developmental gains for children enrolled in therapy are in the area of social skills. Most social skills items in the inventory relate to social-communicative behaviors (e.g., "asks for help" . . . "understands 'wait a minute'" . . . "talks about how to do" . . . "makes excuses" . . .).

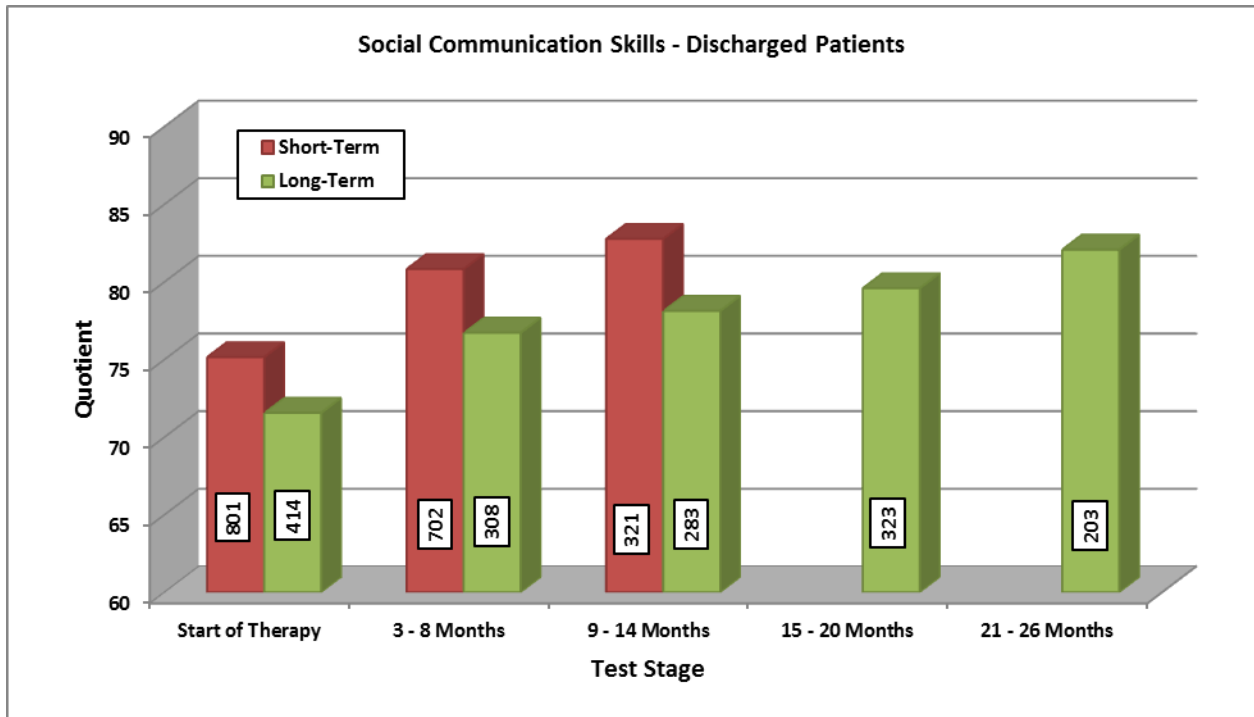

Children who enter Foundation clinical programs with less significant delays in the language domains show progress within six to 12 months of therapy. These youngsters are typically discharged from therapy when they approach the normal range of developmental quotients.

Children who enter Foundation clinical programs with the more significant delays in the language domains make slow, steady progress and may remain in therapy for up to two years.

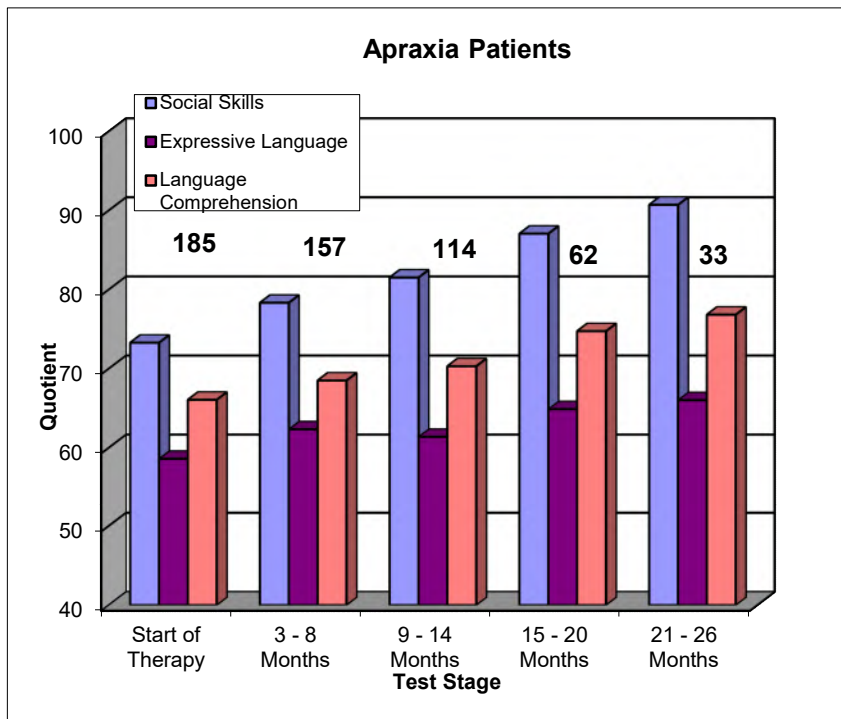

Charts A, B, and C summarize outcome results for children enrolled in therapy in Colorado RiteCare Language Programs. Chart A shows outcomes for children discharged from therapy divided into "short term" versus "long term" treatment programs. Short term patients typically need 12 months or less of therapy to make significant gains. Long term patients typically require up to two years of therapy to achieve their communication potential. Charts B and C show language development outcomes for Social Skills, Expressive Language, and Receptive Language, for two groups of children with specific diagnoses ~ children with apraxia of speech (a motor speech disorder) and children with articulation (speech pronunciation) disorders. Both groups of children show gains in communication skills, most notably in social communication (social skills) with children with articulation disorders showing solid progress into the normal developmental range of this skill within 3 – 8 months of therapy.

An outcomes evaluation is also conducted for children in learning therapy. This evaluation includes several components such as the Word Identification and Spelling Test and a standardized test for sound/letter association (associating the sound of a letter, like "b" with the written symbol B), word identification, and spelling. The evaluation measures a child's percentile ranking in important literacy skills relative to their chronological age and grade. The evaluation is conducted at initiation of therapy and at six-month intervals thereafter.
